

Activities in Leuven

Spring

- International Documentary Film Festival Docville (April-May)
Enjoy a selection of the best national and international documentaries in various locations throughout the city. All films are in English or with English subtitles.
www.docville.be
- Zythos Beer festival (last weekend of April)
Largest beer festival in Belgium and its surroundings.
www.zbf.be
- Leuven in Scène (every other year in May)
High quality emotional and magical performances.
www.leuveninscene.be

Summer

- Beleuvenissen (4 Fridays in July)
Free outdoors music festival with national and international music.
www.leuven.be/beleuvenissen
- M-idzomer (July)
Unique summer festival in the atmospheric enclosed garden of MMuseum Leuven with concerts, comedy, performance, dance, spoken word and visual art.
www.m-idzomer.be
- Hapje-Tapje en Barmannenrace (first Sunday of August)
Culinary trail in the city centre with tasty snacks, drinks and plenty of atmosphere.
www.hapje-tapje.be
- Marktrock (around 15 August)
Three days of rock and festival in the city.
www.facebook.com/Marktrock

Autumn

- STUK Start (end of September)
Free opening four days as the beginning of the cultural STU K- season.
www.stuk.be
- Playground (november)
Festival in which renowned international artists present their most fascinating performances and exhibitions.
www.playgroundfestival.be
- International short film festival Leuven IKL (beginning of December)
An extensive selection of short films, of the most diverse genres.
www.kortfilmfestival.be

Winter

- Winterseason in Leuven
Particularly heart-warming is the range of winter activities at Winterseason in Leuven. The Leuven Christmas market is accompanied by a nostalgic fair. Would you like to know what the famous Leuven town hall looks like inside? Then be sure to take part in the exclusive guided tour. During the winter walks a city guide accompanies you at dusk on a winter trail via some of the quiet spots of the city.